Quiz 1

Instructions

What to study

- All we have seen so far this semester until, and including, iterative statements
  - Lecture 1 to Lecture 17
  - Labs 0, 1, 2, 3 and 4 + Assignment 2
  - i-clicker sessions 1 to 5
    - » Practice coding as much as you can in order to become familiar with Python

Our Quiz 1 will not cover
- Scratch (Assignment 1 and its test)

Note

- Quiz 1 is not related to Assignment 2 the way our test was related to Assignment 1

- This is to say that Assignment 2 is marked separately

- Quiz 1 will also be marked separately and is worth:
  - 3% for the best Quiz out of Quiz 1 and Quiz 2.

Quiz Format

- 10 to 12 multiple choice questions on a 2-sided piece of paper
- Answered on a Scantron sheet

Filling in the Scantron Sheet

- It is very important that you fill all required sections as well as their bubble sections as follows:
Our section is D100

Prior to do the Quiz

- When the instructor says
  Let's do the Quiz!

  – Place everything (bags, books, coats, calculators, computer, cell phones, etc…) under your seat

  – Keep pencils and eraser with you (no pens) and your Scantron sheet

  – Remember, Scantron sheets only work with pencils

At the Start of the Quiz

- When you receive the quiz, put the quiz under your scantron sheet and wait for the instruction to start writing
Please, DO NOT start the quiz!

- Why? If you start the quiz, it is unfair to all other students that have not yet receive a quiz

- When all students have received a quiz, you will be instructed to

Please, you may start your quiz now!

During the Quiz

- Answer each question of the Quiz on the Scantron sheet

- Keep your eyes on your test and Scantron sheet – for obvious reason! ☺

- If you have a question during the test, raise your hand and the instructor (only the instructor) will answer your question.
  – Keep in mind that the instructor will not be able to answer all questions – this is a test after all. ☺

At the End of Quiz

- When you are told to

    Please, stop writing!
    please, do stop writing and hand in your scantron sheet as instructed on next slide

    - Why?
    - If you continue writing, it is unfair to all other students that have stopped writing AND you will be penalized

At the End of Quiz (cont'd)

- Pass you Scantron sheet down the row toward the aisle - The TA's will pick them up

- You can keep your Quiz sheet – you do not have to hand it in, just your Scantron sheet
