

Review of Module 1

The Internet and HTML

Module 1 Exam

- Please see the list of topics on the 165 Fall 2017 site:
<http://www.cs.sfu.ca/CourseCentral/165/tjd/index.html>
- Note the line near that bottom that shows to what point the exam will cover
 - The exam could cover anything in the readings/links posted on the topics site, things discussed in lectures, or things from the project
 - A number of sample websites have been posted. They have lots of comments in them.
- Review the marking scheme on Canvas to be sure you understand how exams will be scored
 - You will have a second chance during the final exam to write another version of this exam
 - Your final exam score will be the higher of these two marks

Exam Hints

- Time is tight during in-class exams!
- Show up on time!
- Bring a pencil!
- Bring your SFU student ID card (or other official picture ID)
- Put all bags, computers, books, etc. at the front of the room
- Please use the washroom before/after the exam
 - No one may leave the exam and re-enter the room to continue writing it

Practice Questions

Some of the following questions are not the same style/structure as the questions that you will get on the exam!

What is the “dark web”?

- A. Deceptive websites (such as link farms) created by spammers
- B. Criminal websites that break laws (e.g. selling illegal drugs)
- C. Any website not indexed by a major search engine
- D. Websites designed before the rise of mobile computing
- E. All of the above
- F. None of the above

Which of the following are true of “Google”

- A. It is a misspelling of the number “Googol” (10^{100}), a reference to the number of pages they wanted to index
- B. It is a mix of the words “Go” and “Ogle” (to stare at). So it means “Go stare at stuff”
- C. According to Larry Page (co-founder of Google), it is just a funny nonsense word he spoke as a child
- D. None of the above

In HTML, what is the special symbol for “<”?

- A. \<
- B. <
- C. <lt>
- D. B or C
- E. There is no special symbol for “<”: it is just written <
- F. None of the above

What is the HTML element for an ordered list?

- A. li
- B. ul
- C. ol
- D. ordered
- E. None of the above

Which of the following is true of tables?

- A. You cannot put a table within a table
- B. Two separate tables cannot appear side by side
- C. If some rows in a table have a different number of cells, then the table will not be displayed
- D. Every table must use either the `thead` or `th` element
- E. All of the above are false

What's the name of the current standard version of HTML supported by most web browsers?

- A. SGML
- B. XML
- C. XHTML
- D. HTML 5

HTML 5 Element or Not an HTML 5 Element?

a

HTML 5 Element or Not an HTML 5 Element?

b

HTML 5 Element or Not an HTML 5 Element?

C

HTML 5 Element or Not an HTML 5 Element?

link

HTML 5 Element or Not an HTML 5 Element?

href

HTML 5 Element or Not an HTML 5 Element?

audio

HTML 5 Tag or Not an HTML 5 Tag?

chapter

HTML 5 Element or Not an HTML 5 Element?

bold

HTML 5 Element or Not an HTML 5 Element?

th

HTML 5 Element or Not an HTML 5 Element?

map